unconventional stuff Worth reading, but not life changing. Live and Let Love is an anthology by many women writers and their life experiences It was captivating, courageous and even entertaining In this anthology, many precious moments were held and most of the stories took place in the past Each story is equally powerful and good as the last one Start anywhere and you will find an inspiring story. A collection of short story length, samey anecdotes by women so famous that I have not heard of any of them, about loves in their lives A bit sentimental and a bit boring after reading five on the trot The End I am not finishing the book.
