We met Daniel LeCroix in Soldier s Pregnancy Protocol We know he has a bad history with Senator White and also some sort of history with his daughter Nicole who had been kidnapped in the last book As this book starts out Daniel, Alec and Jake are in Columbia to rescue Nicole from her kidnappers They find her in a dingy cage cuddled around a little girl who had also been kidnapped On there escape Daniel is shot in the knee Its during this time during flashbacks we find out that Daniel and Nicole have known each other for 10 years Ten years before on prom night Daniel had helped Nicole rescue a kitten He fell in love with her then but he knew she would want nothing to do with a boy from the swamps of Louisiana Five years later they meet again where they have a steamy one night affair but Daniel misunderstands something he hears Nicole saying to her father on the phone who doesn t think Daniel is good enough for his daughter Back in present day after the rescue Daniel has to be the one to tell Nicole that her father betrayed their country and give up Daniel and Alec in Soldier s Pregnancy Protocol She doesn t want to believe it and also doesn t understand the hostility Daniel has for her When another attempt is made to take the girl that Nicole is keeping watch over Daniel decides the Senator still cant be trusted and takes both Nicole and the girl to his childhood home in the swamps of Louisiana I really liked all the scenes at the house Daniel and Nicole had to work through their issues with each other while both trying to connect and take care of the little girl We got to see how Alec and Erin are doing and she has the baby finally. We also got to meet Jake who I understand will get his own book in the future.

Surprisingly I actually found both these stories to be great I can t say I wasn t impressed I connected emotionally to all of it, even the characters, which happens very little for me Some of the stuff in the novel were hard to stomach at times but it was a great read.The two stories in the novel were delightful.

Very good book When Daniel rescues Nicole from the Colombian jungle, she doesn t recognize him at first, though she has never forgotten him She first knew him in high school, then met him again five years later when they spent an unforgettable night together Thanks to a misunderstanding, each was left feeling betrayed by the other Now they are spending time together in a safe house, protecting a little girl, and trying to decide what to do about their attraction Besides the issues of their pasts, Daniel also doesn t trust her father, who had dealings with a drug lord when he was trying to free Nicole Daniel also has some issues with insecurity about his heritage, being raised Cajun He has dealt with a lot of prejudice, and it makes him sensitive to anything he even thinks might be negative He takes awhile to realize that Nicole has no problem with his heritage, and actually considers it something to be proud of I also enjoyed seeing how good Daniel was with the little girl, Pilar, and how he realized that a family could be in his future after all The suspense was great, also, with Daniel trying to protect Nicole and Pilar, and working out how to reunite Pilar with her father I wish there was something in the book to tell what Daniel is going to do now that he s out of the black ops unit I liked seeing Alec and Erin, and I m looking forward to Jake s story.
