This is nice little reunion between Doctor Hannah Morgan and her new boss Kyle Templeton. Eight years ago they were an item, but the death of her sister and her clingy brother in law destroyed the relationship Kyle was young and passionate and refused to listen to Hannah's explanations and went off to Australia where he did something incredibly stupid. Now he is making a new life back in England with his young son, the only good thing that came out of his mistake. These two have a lot to get through to work things out Hannah was dreadfully hurt by Kyle's abandonment and she now has no family. It's going to take a lot for Kyle to win her trust, especially as he still has a tendency to distrust every relationship Hannah has with the opposite sex. The ending was sweet and satisfying I was able to forgive Kyle's stupidity because he obviously grew up when he realized what he had done and took responsibility.
