This was a cute follow up to Know Not Why, but altogether pretty forgettable It was nice to havefocus on the other characters, but I m weak and really just wantedof Arthur and Howie. That was cheesy as hell I loved every second of it. Words , SPOILERS SINCE IT S KIND OF A SEQUEL This is a lovely short story with the characters of the Know not Why book I missed them so much but I have to admit that I ve already kind of reread the whole book twice skipping some parts, obviously. Ten months have passed since we left Howie and Arthur kissing on the roof of the shop on New Year s Eve They are a couple, that s certain, we knew that a lot before the book ended so it s not quite news there It seems that they are almost living together, Howie spends a lot of time in Arthur s apartment and he stays there to sleep so yeah, things are great and that makes me so happy. This short story is about Halloween Holly s, their competitor, have a wonderful Hansel Gretel cookies and candies house and, even if they are still open, their customers aren t a lot They have to up their game so they decided to host a Hunted House even on Halloween Looks simple, fun, right Wrong A not so nice lady, Howie called her Voldemort, is a arts and crafts blogger and has decided, after an unfortunate incident at Holly s, to host her 10 year old son s birthday party the day of their event at their shop She said that if her son is satisfied she might write a really nice review on her blog that will bring customers to the shop Sounds perfect, right WRONG again. Tyler, Voldemort s son, has a weird and macabre idea of how he wants her birthday party to be He wants blood, vomit, guts, chainsaws, sexy mummy, Taylor Swift songs sang in a scary way so, not very age appropriate Arthur is very conflicted but still decided to comply The result will be hilariously disastrous It s quite a simple story with known elements You get to see that Arthur and Howie are still very in love with each other and that s perfect Kristy is still with her boyfriend Cliff We didn t get to see her roommate Nicki but I guess Kristy and Cliff are living together now, maybe It s a possibility Mitch and Amber aren t together but they are getting there very slowly, slug slowly Heather, Howie s sworn enemy now is also Cora s sworn enemy since she stole the role of the Creature in an all female version of Frankenstein But often hate in another word for love, right Howie docet. I m still very in love with Arthur, my favorite little peacoat cutie pie Some things never change Ever read something and think I know this is cheesy, and corny, but hell, I'm enjoying this so much I'm squealing and giggling, so who cares. Pretty much my relationship with this story I absolutely loved every moment of it. Every Single One. You okay, Artie. I can feel the sugar, Arthur says, his voice faint and sleepy. I can feel it dissolving my insides. You had like three Starbursts and a chocolate bar. It was still too much. Howie kisses his shoulder. Aw, you rookie! I mean, how can you not love Howie and Arthur during Halloween. Or Cora. Or Kristy. It renewed my mildly dormant fangirling for these precious babies. I love these characters so much. Hey look, Howie says Tim Burton broke in and puked his soul all over. A very reasonable explanation, Arthur says. This was perfect. Just what I wanted, and better than I expected. 3.5 stars only recommended if you lurved the first book. If you did, then this serves as a sort of treat, you get to spend time with the characters. It's cute and funny in that way, but doesn't really work as a story of its own, mostly because there's just too many characters, with too many different things going on in their lives and there's just not enough time in 70 or so pages to really address each of them, like the original book did. But as a fun piece of fluff it works very well.

TOIL & TROUBLE

a KNOW NOT WHY halloween (mis)adventure
