This is a cosy read Fantastic outback descriptions and homesteads Cate works in a hospital and on her family s cattle farm Cate knew and felt in her heart that she needed to find someone for she always wanted a family but did not want to leave her home town Cate thought she had found her one , Brett, but when he said for Cate to move to Sydney and her answer being no he broke off the engagement Everyday work and stresses had Cate busy until Dr Noah Masters was sent to the hospital to review their budget What no one knew was, their town was under the threat of flooding and some truths are revealed and feelings are unleashed Great read, great escape

Cate is not at all happy with the news of a new CEO She is convinced that Noah Masters is no good for her hospital, but when a number of emergencies leaves these two working way too close with each other, could they deny their mutual attraction
