Michael and Rachel s story I had mixed feelings reading this story especially when handing over your kids to their dad when he visits town As for dreams not sure on those. This was another excellent book of Margaret Daley I have over 20 of her books, and all but 3 are not read yet I would highly recommend this book to people who love to read It is a fantastic book to read. I couldn t get past the first chapter I read for enjoyment and two people arguing, is not fun. 3 1 2 StarsJanuary 9, 2010Good read I really enjoyed this story Much than the past few I have read, In this one, the problems that the characters had and faced seemed very real to me and the emotions that they all had were very real AND appropriate to the situation I can actually recommend this one highly Rachel Peters Had Left The Sleepy Town Of Magnolia Blossom To Pursue Her Dream Of Becoming A Famous Chef In Paris But A Family Crisis Brings Her Back Home And Back To Michael Hunter, The Man She D Once Loved Michael Helps Rachel Come To Terms With Life S Challenges, And They Soon Realize That They Belong Together Forever This was a great book that told all about how God and love can get you through things I really liked the way that it related to real life and how it showed oof two peopleI came together again I really enjoyed this book. It is a great book. Read this awhile ago, and I m just trying to get my books into Goodreads I don t remember much about the book. I loved this book I even wrote the author tooThis book is definately a keeper on my shelves.
