Moreover, this is just part 1 of 2 and because it's not actually finished yet, there are also quite a few typos which always throws me off. And it's nothing really new except who Curran's parents were pre-Shift which felt weird too because he told the story to Kate before. But it was still nice to be back before getting into book 9. D Really really sad. Curran talks about his life before he moved in the Pack with gruesome details about how his parents were killed and how he survived as a kid.
