Yeshua Jesus came not to abolish the Torah law but to fulfill it This book has helped to open my eyes about this statement from the messiah Many Christians don't understand this phrase He spoke If He really did come to not abolish the Torah, then the Torah is still in effect for His people If the Torah is still in effect for His people, then it's still in effect for me and my family The crux of the Torah includes 613 mitzvot commandments, not just the 10 the modern church chooses to obey or partially obey These mitzvot include dietary restrictions no pork, shellfish, etc., adherence to Sabbath observance yep, that's Saturday and not Sun Day and all sorts of other commandments that the modern church dismisses as Jewish Law and mean for the people of Israel Study for yourself non Jews were camped with Jews in the wilderness and were told by YHWH, by Moses to obey the same rules if they wanted to stay with the camp These series of books by Todd D Bennett have really challenged my belief system.

I used to wonder, when I read If you love me, obey my commandments, which commandments did Yeshua Jesus mean And when I read commandments in the Old Testament, Christians would say yes, but God is speaking to the Jews hint there were no Christians yet, only set apart believers, both Jew and gentile. Christians would say, we are not under law but under grace So they were saying, that God His name is actually Yahweh had one set of life instructions for the Jews, and another set of instructions for the gentiles, or Christians But is that accurate Does God change Did He change His
