This is a Dick and Jane book, if Dick and Jane were Amish children on a farm It s a basal reader with controlled vocabulary This is the mid first grade reader that is not aggressive about adding words only 117 new words are introduced in this 155 page book the rest were in the previous reader, First Steps My 6 year old found this book pretty funny and read it happily We use these books to work on fluency prosody there is a lot of of dialogue that can be read with drama One content note the second half of the book involves a misbehaving puppy who is getting implied beatings for digging holes, chewing on shoes, etc., so he learns to be a good dog

I thought that the story about the doll running up into the tree was very funny.

When it has a line and a dot an exclamation point I read it as loud as my lungs will do it.
