Mary Kay Andrews Takes Us Back To Savannah, Georgia, In Savannah Breeze, The Uproarious Sequel To Her Blockbuster New York Times Bestseller, Savannah Blues Breeze Is The Story Of BeBe Loudermilk, A Southern Belle Who D Dearly Like To Get Back At The Handsome, Two Faced Con Man Who Swindled Her Out Of Everything She Owns Except For A Broken Down S Era Motel On Tybee Island Joining BeBe On A Revenge Inspired Road Trip South To Fort Lauderdale Is Her Junking Friend Weezie, The Heroine Of Blues, And A Car Full Of Lovable Misfits Readers With A Taste For The Novels Of Fannie Flagg, Jennifer Crusie, Adriana Trigiani, And Emily Giffin Not To Mention Rebecca Wells And Sweet Potato Queens Queen Jill Conner Browne Will Adore This Delightful Take On The New South And One Woman S Discovery Of What S Really Important In Life I loved this book Again Andrews didn t let me down I recommend this book for a good summer reader. Another great book in this southern mystery These characters are fun and loveable. I wanted to like this one, I really did But despite the heroine s apparent history as an astute business woman, she spent the first couple chapters acting so darned stupid Eventually I ran out of sympathy and stopped caring about how she would dig herself out of this mess. Southern belle and three time divorcee BeBe Loudermilk pronounced Bay Bay loses all of her wordly possessions, including her restaurant and three historic homes in Savannah, to charming con man and professional investment counselor , Reddy This, of course, is the result of a hot and heavy relationship with said investment counselor And then there is the matter of a teeny tiny misunderstanding over a Durable Power of Attorney BeBe soon discovers that the only thing left besides her pretty white Lexus and the clothes on her back is a ramshackle motel on Tybee Island, a self described drinking village with a fishing problem BeBe moves into the manager s unit, enlists the help of hunky fishing captain turned caretaker, Harry, and works hard to turn a quick profit on the crumbling mess so that she can re open her restaurant When Reddy is spotted in Florida working another con, BeBe drops everything to pursue him and re claim what is rightfully hers She organizes a makeshift posse that includes her best friend, Weezie, Savannah Blues , her chef a k a Weezie s boyfriend, Daniel, and Grandfather Loudermilk With Grandfather Loudermilk snoring in the backseat and occassionally demanding to stop off for Kit Kat bars , the foursome make the drive to Florida to pull off a crazy and semi illegal caper that will get BeBe s money back.I love this author s sense of humor and quick wit She has a true talent for writing colorful characters BeBe should have come across as a total airheaded idiot, but instead she is a smart, strong, successful woman who just happened to take a wrong turn in life The loving relationship between BeBe and her grandparents was touching to read about and I got a kick out of the way she handles the headstrong and hunky Harry I m not quite sure how to categorize this series it s not quite chick lit, not strictly romance, and a little light on suspense For now, I m going to call it good old fashioned Southern lit with a hint of comedy.
