Une bonne romance mais qui traîne trop en longueur et dont la fin me semble un peu bcl e

Darius and Marguerite had exchanged vows at 15, before she was torn from him and married off to her father s chosen match Darius spent 6 years in exile from his home Now home after the death of his father, he is sent on the King s mission to hold the borderland castle of Thornson after its lord s death from the Scot king and route out the smugglers at work there It turns out this is the lord Marguerite was married to The Lady and men of Thornson walk a fine line between the 2 Kings Darius has much to do in figuring out their loyalty and in trying to recapture his wife A decent medieval romance.
